Dear Admiral Turner:

Thank you for your recent note expressing your pleasure in my return to Washington and my work. It is indeed gratifying to me that you would let me hear from you.

I, too, would like to have a visit with you and have you bring me up to date on happenings in the Intelligence Community. Perhaps in the next few days this can be arranged.

Again, my appreciation for your very kind comments, and my best personal wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator McClellan,

I am delighted to know that you are back in Washington and on the job. Your counsel is needed during these difficult times.

I hope I have an opportunity to chat with you soon. I'd like to fill you in on what has been happening in the Intelligence Community.

With warmest regards.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Honorable John L. McClellan,
Chairman
Committee on Appropriations
